

Business chief leaps to death in New York

New York, Feb 3.—Mr Eli Black, chairman of the board of United Brands, one of the world's largest food processing companies, today leapt to his death from the 44th floor of the Pan American World Airways building in New York.

Police said he had apparently smashed an eight-foot high window with his briefcase before jumping. He left no note. He fell on to an elevated section of Park Avenue.

News in Brief.

The Times (London, England), Tuesday, Feb 04, 1975; pg. 8; Issue 59311. (147 words)

Category: News in Brief

© Times Newspapers Limited

Gale Document Number:CS135625796